Anne Page is known in the UK and abroad as a musician who combines virtuosity and versatility. Born and educated in Perth, Australia, she moved to Europe to continue advanced studies with Marie-Claire Alain, Peter Hurford, and Jaques van Oortmerssen. She made her London debut playing her 20th century repertoire at the Royal Festival Hall. Now based in Cambridge, she directed the Cambridge Summer Recitals for eight years, presenting many world and UK first performances, and bringing several major recitalists from Europe to Britain for the first time. Her career encompasses performances and broadcasts in Europe, the USA and Australia.

Entrance £5 on the Door.
